HARPER WEDDINGS

Dry hire bookings at our Houses

When you book a Harper Wedding, you are not only booking the House, but you are also booking the expertise and service of our experienced wedding planners, hosts and chefs. From the big picture to the tiniest detail, we take care of it all, supporting you in planning your day to perfection.

Sometimes though, cultural traditions might mean it's just the House you're looking for as you may wish to have your own event planners and caterers. If this is you then we'd be delighted to discuss a dry-hire booking at any of our UK wedding venues.

BOTLEYS MANSION

A MAGICAL SURREY MANSION with a mysterious royal past

Botleys Mansion is thirty minutes from London but feels a million miles away. At the end of a leafy private drive, its handsome Palladian features preside over a classical fountain and 56 acres of rolling parkland (a rather fine backdrop for the photos). The original house was purchased by King Henry VIII as a 'gift' for his Chancellor.

It's always been a place with a certain cachet.

THE ROMANTIC
TUDOR MANOR HOUSE
on the brow of a Hampshire hill

Cain Manor's timbered exterior enchants the moment you reach the end of its winding, woodland driveway. The crunch of gravel gives way to weathered flagstones as you approach the front door. You've found the quintessential English country hideaway. Step inside and you sense five hundred years of history. With looks to charm, it's a house that wears its past well.

THE
where every stone tells a story

Your heart beats a little faster as you near the end of the long, tree-lined driveway. And then you see it. Set in private riverside grounds dotted with lavender, Notley Abbey instantly casts its spell. The ancient monastic seat that seduced Hollywood lovebirds Sir Laurence Olivier and Vivien Leigh is every bit as beguiling today. Now it's your turn to take centre stage.
